INDEX TO VOLUME 119, 1992

A comparison of overstory community structure in three southern Appalachian spruce fir forests, 316
A mechanistic model of a single hormone regulating both sexes in flowering plants, 431
A new Ceratostema (Ericaceae: Vaccinieae) from northern Peru, 314
Abies fraseri, effect of balsam woolly adelgid on, in Great Smoky Mountains, 289 in southern Appalachian spruce-fir forests, 316
ABRAMS, MARC D.: Historical variation in fire, oak recruitment, and post-logging accelerated succession in central Pennsylvania, 19
Acer species, presence in forests of central Pennsylvania, 19
acorn removal, seedling survivorship, and seedling growth of Quercus crispipilis in successional forests of the highlands of Chiapas, Mexico, 6
Adelges piceae (balsam woolly adelgid), effect of, on Fraser fir, 289
the balsam woolly adelgid, on Fraser fir, 316
Adirondacks, contributions to the flora of, 442 aerial photographs, used to assess effects of logging and hurricanes on northern hardwoods forests 29
After the Ice Age. The Return of Life to Glaciated North America (Book Review), 92
Agalinis strictifolia, reproduction limitation in, by pollinators, 131
Ailanthus altissima, spatial patterns of invading, in New Jersey oldfields, 145 alpine areas, contributions to the flora of, in the Adirondack mountains of New York, 442 anatomy, of the flowers and pollen of Saruma 392
ANDERSON, KARL: see Greller, A. M., 446
Andes, a new blueberry (Ceratostema rauhii) from, 314
